

This certificate entitles the holder to one year of membership in the
HOPKINTON HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Given to:

From:

The Hopkinton Historical Society is supported entirely by membership dues and donations and assisted by volunteer efforts. Members receive program discounts, program updates, and invitations to attend and enjoy each of many events. If you are interested in volunteering, opportunities include help with research, putting on events, and maintaining the building and grounds. Through membership and volunteerism, you are contributing to the Society's ability to document and share Hopkinton's unique history with current and future generations.
